WOMEN MUST NOW LEAVE PORT ARTHUR

The Food and Water are Needed by Defenders.

The Baltic Fleet Reported at Last Ready to Sail—No Big Battle Yet.

SITUATION IN THE FAR EAST

Rome, Oct. 3.—A telegram from Chefoo asserts that general Stoessel, in command of Port Arthur, has ordered all women and children, except nurses, to leave the Port in order that food and water which are scarce, will last longer.

THE BALTIC SQUADRON.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 3.—Announcement is made that Emperor Nicholas will visit Ravel Tuesday to bid farewell to the Baltic squadron. After months of preparation and several false starts, it is believed the squadron is at last on the eve of its departure upon its long journey.

The question of the war in the far east will depend upon the issue of the sea fight after the arrival of the Baltic fleet.

If the Japanese fleet is caught in such a weakened condition that the Baltic ships are to win the victory, the officials here hold that the other problems will solve themselves, and with Japanese communications severed, the Japanese army on the mainland will be at the mercy of the Russians.

HARD FIGHT AT PORT ARTHUR.

Chefoo, Oct. 3.—Severe fighting, the Russians being the aggressors, occurred on September 28 and 29, on the west shore of Liao Ti promontory, near Pigeon bay, according to a report brought by a Chinese who left Port Arthur September 30. The Russians were in considerable force and they made several sorties, dragging field artillery with them. They were unsuccessful, however.
The Russian ships were silent during the battle and the hitherto unused merchant ships, were, as a result of the fight, turned into hospitals.

Several Chinese were employed in carrying the dead, which were so numerous they were unable to form anything like an estimate of the number who fell in attacking and defending the supplementary forts near Tz mountain. Since the battle both sides continue to shell at intervals daily.

EFFORTS TO RETAKE PORTS.

Tokio, Oct. 3.—The Russians are reported to be desperately endeavoring to retake their lost positions, including Port Kuropatkin, in the hope of restoring the water supply of Port Arthur.
They are said to have repeatedly assaulted the Japanese after shelling from neighboring forts and batteries. The Japanese continue to hold the positions.
Both sides are said to have suffered severely.

Newly mounted Japanese guns are said to command the entire harbor.

FOR TWENTY MILES.

London, Oct. 3.—A correspondent of the Times, just returned from the front, telegraphing from Tokio, says the Russians have two divisions on the Hun river, four at Mukden and the remainder of the army concentrated at Tie Pass, which they are fortifying.

The three Japanese armies, the correspondent adds, occupy a front extending twenty miles north of Liao Yang in their original order.

In connection with the rumors of another projected sortie of the Port Arthur squadron, a Shanghai dispatch reports that a Russian warship was expected to arrive at Woosung Sunday night.

According to a Japanese correspondent such a sortie would only be attempted in the last extremity and when the surrender of the garrison could no longer be postponed.

fused—Pittsburg Woman Suicides.

LADY CURZON IMPROVING

Washington, Oct. 3.—Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning Postmaster-General Payne had another sinking spell which continued until 7. During that period death was momentarily expected, and only the use of the most powerful stimulants in large doses prevented dissolution. Since 7 he has rallied somewhat, but the danger of death is said to still be imminent.

Washington, Oct. 3.—A bulletin issued this afternoon says there has been little improvement in Postmaster-General Payne's condition since morning.

JUMPED FROM BRIDGE.

Pittsburg, Oct. 3.—A woman found in the river here has been identified as Emma Prager, inmate of a resort. It is supposed she committed suicide by jumping from the bridge.

TOOK CARBOLIC ACID.

New York, Oct. 3.—Charles J. McKay, a broker, committed suicide with carbolic acid today. He had been ill for some reports the destruction of another Russian steamer used in clearing the mines at the entrance to Port Arthur harbor.

The steamer struck a mine and sunk.

The reported loss of a Japanese gun-boat south of Liao Tung peninsula by striking a mine has not been confirmed.

MUST PRACTICE ECONOMY.

Tokio, Oct. 3.—Premier Katsura, in an interview this morning, said the "war will continue a long time. The nation must be determined to achieve success, and make the necessary sacrifices.
It is hoped we may be able to secure greater economy with a greater efficiency in local administration.

RUSSIAN VESSEL LOST.

Tokio, Oct. 3.—The navy department reports the destruction of another Russian steamer while clearing mines at the entrance of Port Arthur. The reported loss of a Japanese gunboat at the Port is unconfirmed.

A BIG BATTLE.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 3.—The news from the front this morning is fragmentary, indicating that nothing more than a continuance of preparations for the great battle. This battle now seems likely to occur north of Mukden in the neighborhood of Tie Ling, on the Liao river.

RAISED HIS MEN.

Chefoo, Oct. 3.—An official report from General Stoessel reached Chefoo today confirming the previous report of the repulse of the Japanese attack at Port Arthur, which began September 19, and ended on the 22nd. Japanese having retired. Gen. Stoessel issued a proclamation praising the bravery of his men.

Shanghai, Oct. 3.—A Russian warship supposed to be the armored cruiser Bayan, of the Port Arthur squadron, is reported anchored off Gutzlaf island, in Hang Chau bay. Tugs will proceed thither to bring her to Shanghai.

THE TRAINS CANNOT MOVE

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 3.—It is rumored that Gen. Basilio, leader of the Uruguayan revolutionists, has been shot by his former followers.

Gen. Munoz succeeded to the leadership of the Uruguayan revolutionists after the death of Gen. Aparicio Sariva recently. Munoz soon afterward arranged peace with the government, but eight revolutionary leaders, including two members of the family of Sariva, announced that they declined to recognize the action of Munoz and that they would continue hostilities under Gen.
Ampillon.

The truce between the Uruguayan authorities and the revolutionists continues pending the acceptance or refusal of new peace proposals, the provisions of which have not been made public. Advices give reports of small engagements between the revolutionists there and the government forces, but they are so conflicting as to render the making of accurate statements impossible. Both sides claim to be masters of the situation, but it is believed that the conditions are practically unchanged from those last reported.

It is reported from Corrientes that John N. Ruffin, American consul at Asuncion, Paraguay, is acting as agent for President Excurra and has telegraphed by the annual address of President Hugh Kirk, of Elizabeth, N. J., who arrived last night from his home.

The local lodge of shipwrights and caulkers has engaged an orchestra and will spread a banquet tonight.

Last night and this morning about fifteen delegates arrived and they have been coming in on every train. By night there will be fully thirty delegates here and the convention will be one of the most successful ever held. This is the first time one has been held so far south and the Paducah lodge intends to show the delegates what Kentucky hospitality means.

Among those of prominence here are President Hugh Kirk, Elizabeth, N. J.;
Treasurer and Secretary Thos. Durett,
Elizabeth, N. J.; First Vice-President

NEW ELECTRIC ROAD WANTS FRANCHISE

Will Apply Tonight for Right of Way.

Desires To Go As Far South
Through Paducah as Tenness.

THE OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

The Paducah and Cairo Electric Railway company will tonight at the regular meeting of the council ask for a franchise to enter Paducah. It will ask for right-of-way down Eighth street to Clay down Clay to Fifth, and up Fifth to Tennessee street.

The company, it is understood, will shortly be ready to begin work.

It is incorporated for $250,000, the papers being filed a few days ago, and a certificate of incorporation was received today.

It is not believed that much difficulty will be encountered in getting the desired right of way, as it was given once before to a projected railroad line from Paducah to Cairo, which project was finally abandoned.

From what could be learned today there will be little opposition to the proposed franchise.

The officers of the new company are L. B. Whitesides, president; J. J. Freundlich, vice-president and general manager; W. H. Paul, secretary; C. E. Whitesides, treasurer.

R. M. Allen, of Lexington, was elected secretary and treasurer of the Pure Food congress at its closing session in St.

MORE TROUBLE IN PROSPECT

Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 3.—Half the town of Watrous was destroyed by the flood and at least twelve persons were drowned. Among these were the three children of J. A. Stevens, Felix, Villars, his wife, two sisters and several children and O. F. Porter. J. E. Stevens and his wife escaped and have been brought here. They are in a critica condition. Many persons were rescued from trees and house-tops.

The greatest damage was around the junction of Mora and Sapello creeks.
The rock crusher, the great iron bridge and much track at Watrous were washed away.

The Gallinas river formed a new channel here. In the Gallinas Canyon the dams of the Aqua Pura company broke, bringing a terrific flood on the city.
The Montezuma Hot Springs track went out in many places. Half a dozen bridges were destroyed, and the Montezuma bathhouses were partly carried away.
For two blocks on Bridge street every business house was flooded. The big Helfed brick store was ruined and the big bridge undermined. Gallinas park is under water and the trolley line cannot be repaired for two weeks. The race meet next week has been declared off.

One hundred thousand dollars will not cover the loss to the town and the railroad loss is equal to that of recent ood in Arizona.

From Santa Rosa comes a report of the loss of the great iron bridge of the Rock Island railroad and much track age.

Vaile in some manner slipped and fell between a barge and the boat.

The body was recovered and brought

No one saw the accident. The mem-

Startling Admission Regarding Connecticut.

No Motive Yet Discovered—Pull-

at Work.

A KILLING IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 3.—Rear Admiral Rodgers, commandant of the Brooklyn navy yard, before his retirement today made the official announcement that three attempts had been made to wreck the battleship Connecticut. The mystery of the attempts remains unsolved.

Navy department officials are thoroughly aroused over the discovery of the latest attempt to injure the new battleship.

Naval officers here are unable to ascribe a motive unless it was one of pure mischief. It is stated here that the injury to the ship is not serious and repairs can be made quickly.

Acting Secretary Darling, discussing the matter expressed great indignation over the repeated efforts that have been made to injure the vessel. This last effort he particularly characterized as a dastardly one and the perpetrator of the outrage, if apprehended, he said, deserved severe punishment.

EMPLOYEES BACK AT WORK.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—The employees of Pullman car works were called back to work today after a four weeks illness.
There was no recognition of union labor, each application being made individually. The old terms were offered

K. I. T. LEAGUE

PRESIDENT THOMPSON THINKS IT WILL REMAIN AS NOW.

President Thompson, of the K. I. T. League and Paducah fans have a different idea of what the Kitty League will be next year from the Cairo papers, which insist that the league will consist principally of Illinois and Indiana towns. President Thompson thinks it will remain as it is with possibly the addition of Owensboro and Evansville, the latter wanting to come into the league, not being able to support a big league team. He thinks that the attitude taken by Cairo in the pennant controversy will soon be abandoned, and that Cairo fans will quiet down.

The Kitty League has stood two seasons with the present membership and can stand again and President Thompson thinks it folly to attempt to break it up and experiment with other towns.

SAVED HIS LIFE.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00. TOLEDO TO TRAIN HERE.

Chief Harry Lloyd, manager of the Paducah Indians for next season, has received a letter from Memphis managers asking for a date for the Memphis team against Paducah, also a letter from Mickey Finn, manager of the Little Rock baseball team, Southern League, who will next season manage the Toledo, O., American Association, asking if he can secure the Paducah grounds for training next spring before the opening of the baseball season. It is probable that the local management will make some arrangements with the Toledo man as this will give the Paducah team an excellent opportunity to train with fast company. It is probable no other games will be played here this season.

Special Officer Does Not Remember Shooting Green.

An Alleged Thief Is Arrested at Carbondale, Ill., and Brought Here For Trial.

MR. T. E. RILEY ASSAULTED

Special I. C. Officer Thomas Murray, shot Joseph Green, a towboat man, Saturday night late while Green was trying to get Murray home. Murray says he remembers nothing about the occurrence. He is being held for malicious shooting.

Saturday afternoon and evening Murray and Green were together, drinking. Murray had not been drinking for some time, it is said, and a few drinks "put him off watch." Towards 12 o'clock he began to get very drunk and after Blacknell's saloon, at Ninth and Kentucky avenue, was left, Murray was hardly able to stand up.

Green escorted him across the street, to the Graham saloon and stood outside the door waiting for a cab in which he intended placing Murray and taking him home, Green not being so drunk.

Officers McCune and Orr, were near and came over to see the two. They perceived Murray was drunk and an argument was started with Green. It is said that Murray said, "Green you are making an ass out of me," to which Green replied that he was not, and was simply acting as his friend. Murray then called him a liar, and Green remarked that he wouldn't say that if he was sober, but that he was his friend and had been trying to take care of him. Murray stepped back, it is alleged, and said he was going to sit down on the door sill of the saloon, and when he stepped back pulled a gun and quickly fired into Green's right thigh.

The bullet made a flesh wound which is not serious, and so quick was the shooting done that Officers Orr and McCune, who had not the least suspicion or idea Murray was going to shoot, were powerless to stop him. Only one shot was fired, however, and after this the police grabbed Murray and took his gun away.

Green and Murray were both brought to the hall and after Murray had somewhat sobered and asked why he shot, he said he had shot no one and that he and Green were the best of friends. The case was today continued.

Herbert Smith, white, who until a few days ago worked for the I. C. road as fireman here, was brought to the city this morning at 7:30 o'clock and turned over to the police to await trial for robbery.

Smith gave the name of Gardner here and when first employed by the I. C. worked at pipe laying when the water mains were extended by the I. C. from Tennessee street to the coal chute. He was found one morning by Special Officer Tom Murray and a friendship sprang up between the two. Murray got Smith a job at pipe laying and when this was finished secured him a position fitting on the road. He roomed at Murray's house at Sixteenth and Jones street and last Friday when Murray retired for the day, being on duty during the night, Smith is alleged to have taken his gun, flash light lantern, and star and skipped out.

The matter was reported to the police and Special Officer Dick Tolbert, of the I. C., began working on the case. He located Smith at Carbondale and telegraphed Detective Veady, of the I. C., at that place, to arrest him which was done. This morning Veady brought him here and turned him over to Officer Tolbert at the depot.

Smith is in jail here pending trial which will be given him tomorrow morning.

Tom Riley, a carman employed by the local I. C., was yesterday mysteriously assaulted Saturday night near Ninth and Washington streets and his watch and several dollars taken.

Riley was drunk and was picked up in the street near the Blacknell saloon late Saturday night. He had mud and blood all over his person and after washing, several wounds made by knuckles in the head were discovered. The wounds were dressed and when Riley got sufficiently sober to tell what had happened, stated he was assaulted and robbed. He remembered little about it and could not tell where it happened or anything definite connected with it.

Riley is uncertain as to how much money he lost, but says it is between $15 and $20.

This morning late the police arrested Jim McKee, a tailor who has been in trouble time and again, and when brought into court announced that he

INTERESTING FACTS.

For Nearly Every Man, Woman and Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers the new discovery for the cure of Dyspepsia, called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claims then made regarding the wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautious about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single package costing but 50 cents at any drug store made a complete cure and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received we have space to publish only a few of the latest, but assure our readers we receive so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, unsolicited testimonials and never publish the same one twice.

From James Yenneiser, La Crosse, Wis.: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything I ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes to my friends who have also had the same benefits.

From Jacob Anthony, Portmurray, New Jersey: I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I had Dyspepsia for 6 years and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner and I heartily recommend to everyone who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets.

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one-half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion and she had the same good results.

From Mrs. Agnes K. Ralston, Cadillac, Mich.: I have been taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I am very much better, and feel very grateful for the great benefit I have received in so short a time.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of Indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach trouble only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, sour or acid stomach, heartburn, bloating or wind on stomach and similar disorders.

The company is still waiting for a new switch board before putting the Palmer House telephone system into operation.

Glover, of Owensboro, Ky., has arrived to take charge of the Imperial Tobacco Company's plant at Fifth and Clay streets, succeeding Mr. Clarence Martin, who left today for Greenville, Ky., to take charge of the coal mines there. Mr. Glover is an experienced man, and it is stated that the Imperial will do a big business the coming year.

Mr. Glover will go to the country this week to look at the crops but will do no buying at present. The Imperial expects to put up more tobacco than usual the coming year.

sold the first season in Texas by the well-known drug firm of Houston Bros. of Victoria and Cuero. The reason for this is not hard to understand—it is pleasant to the taste and does not upset the stomach like the so-called sweet, tasteless tonics. Your druggist has it, or can get it for you from his jobber. Insist on Yucatan Chill Tonic (Improved).

PADEREWski HURT HIS FINGER.

Melbourne, Sept. 2.—Paderewski met with a singular accident while playing at Melbourne. During a rapid passage the little finger of his right hand caught in the keys and the flesh was torn. Although the distinguished pianist suffered great pain, and the finger bled freely, he stuck pluckily to his performance to the end of the piece. The recital which was to have followed had to be postponed.

BOILS AND ERUPTIONS

Have been suffering from Impure Blood for many years, having Boils and other Eruptions. Having heard of S. S. S. I decided to try it, and am glad to say it has done me a great deal of good. I intend to continue to use it, as I believe it to be the best Blood Medicine on the market. Cleveland, Tenn. W. K. DRYERS.

For over fifteen years I have suffered more or less from Impure Blood. About a year ago I had a boil appear on my leg below the knee, which was followed by three more on my neck. I saw S. S. S. advertised and decided to try it. After taking three bottles all Boils disappeared and I have not been troubled any since. Geo. G. FERTIG.

114 W. Jefferson St., Louisville, Ky.

Newark, Ohio, May 23, 1903. From childhood I had been bothered with bad blood, skin eruptions and boils. I had boils ranging from five to twenty in number each season. The burning accompanying the eruption was terrible. S. S. S. seemed to be just the medicine needed in my case. It drove out all impurities and had blood, giving me permanent relief from the skin eruption and boils. This has been ten years ago, and I have never had a return of the disease. Mrs. J. D. ATHERTON.

SMASHED GLASS

DAMAGE TO THE FRONT OF CHAMBLEE'S, PROBABLY BY THIEVES.

Sometime Saturday night a brick or boulder was thrown through the front door of Chamblee Bros., near Broadway and Fifth. The brick was evidently hard as it broke through extra heavy glass. The pane broken, however, was one of the door glasses, and not one of the big plate glass windows. Mr. Chamblee has a room over the store and thinks that the vandalism was committed between 1 and 2 o'clock as he was aroused by a noise about that time, and that the object was burglary, as the person who broke out the glass could then reach in, unlock the door, which has a spring lock, and go inside. Mr. Chamblee had a large amount of money after Saturday's sales, and thinks that someone saw him through the window counting it. If anything was stolen, however, it was not missed. None of the money was secured, as Mr. Chamblee has no safe and took good care to put the money in a secure place.

WENT AWAY

C. H. Ogilvie Throws Keys Over Door and Departs.

Everything Straight and Nothing Is Known of His Whereabouts.

Friends of Mr. C. H. Ogilvie, a driver for the American Express Company and a well known young man, are wondering where he has gone. Last night he wrote a brief note to the local agent of the company, resigning, and stating that he would let them know later where to find him, stuck the note under the office door, and threw the key to the office over the transom.

He has not been seen since, and it is unknown where he went. Mr. Ogilvie's accounts are perfectly straight and his employers thought a great deal of him and are unable to account for his sudden and inexplicable departure, unless he simply decided to go elsewhere to locate.

ELECTION OFFICERS, PLEASE NOTICE.

Editor SUN:

Will you kindly publish the following sections of the Kentucky Election Laws for information and guidance of precinct election officers in the discharge of their duties as such officers:

Each officer of election shall before entering upon the duties of his office take an oath faithfully to discharge his duties as such officer before some person authorized to administer an oath, or if no such officer be present it may be administered by the clerk of the election, who shall in turn be sworn by one of the judges of election."

"Section 50-a: The officers of election in the several election precincts of the respective cities and towns mentioned in the preceding section shall be the officers of registration in such precinctsXXXX."

ASYLUM NOTES

ONE PADUCAH PATIENT HAS ENTIRELY RECOVERED.

Officer Scott Ferguson, who took a lunatic to Hopkinsville Saturday, has returned and stated that Jim Magner, who was sent up from here for alleged lunacy, was apparently all right again.

Whenever a patient is cured and of the kind Magner is, he is turned loose in the yards and not watched. Often they run off and are never sent back again. Magner was simply laboring under the effects of several years of drinking and the authorities say when they kept whiskey away from him, he got all right.

Clifton Center, who was sent from this city to Hopkinsville violently insane, is better. His case is a very bad one, however, the authorities say and he will not be easily cured, if at all.

SUPT. KNOWLES RECOVERS.

Mr. Clarence Knowles, superintendent of water supply of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, has about recovered after a week's illness of malarial fever and was able to go out on his division this morning to resume duty. His many friends will be pleased to learn of his recovery.

On All Government Buildings During Business Hours.

H. A. Taylor, acting secretary of the treasury, has called the attention of the custodians of all government buildings to the rules requiring the United States flag to be displayed on the buildings during business hours, and on July 4 and February 22, and on May 30 at half mast. Mr. Taylor said it had come to his attention that in some cities the order was being neglected. He also instructs the custodians to see that the flags are not worn or dirty, and says that new flags will be issued to custodians whenever necessary.

MAYFIELD MEN SUE.

C. W. Boswell and Z. T. Long have filed suit in circuit court here against the Citizens' Savings' Bank, Long for $1,710.28, and Boswell for $3,923.28. They lost in speculation and sued the Odell Company, which had commission houses here and in Mayfield, and claim that when they sought to attach money in the bank here to secure their judgments, it was claimed there was no money belonging to the defendants in the bank. The plaintiffs in these suits just filed, claim that there was.

Suffering

Will Not Help Your Disease, but Will Weaken Your Nerves.

Folks who think it is better to bear pain than soothe it—are wrong. Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-paralyzing drugs.

But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, it is wrong to suffer, for nothing can be gained but weakened nerves.

A safe rule to remember is: When in pain, take an Anti-Pain Pill.

This will soothe your aching nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands.

They are sure and harmless, and are the latest medical treatment for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pains. Also nerve irritations like Sea-Sickness, Car-Sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc.

Pleasant to take, quick in results. "I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick, nervous headache, and have received the best results. I heartily recommend their curative properties, for they are successful."—REV. RAY A. WATKINS, D. D., Iowa City, Ia. Sold by druggists, at 25c. Money back if first box does not help. THE WEATHER.

ROOSEVELT AND PROSPERITY.

Confidence in the election of Theodore Roosevelt and a republican congress is in evidence on every hand. Nothing so fully reflects the prosperity of our country as do our postal receipts which continue to increase throughout the entire country from month to month. Even the business done during the midsummer months of July and August show most substantial gains over not only corresponding months of previous years but over previous months of this year. These gains are in many cases as high as from 15 to 20 per cent., the general average being somewhat over 12 per cent.

Coincident with this gain in postal business are the increased orders now being placed with our iron and steel manufacturers for steel rails and structural materials even at the well maintained pool prices. Another evidence is the unusual activity now taking place throughout the country in the booking of orders for the late fall and winter trade among our merchants. The hotels of New York are today full of buyers from every part of the country who are giving large orders and who report from their sections that business prospects were never brighter. In short, we have manifested on every hand a revival in business which is most substantial and with the harvesting of the crops and the splendid returns which are about to accrue to the farmer it would seem as if a record-breaking spring and winter were before us. This will be fully materialized in case the republican party is successful at the polls on the 8th of November. Should the contrary be the case, however, we may look for a repetition of the conditions of 1892, and a consequent panic during 1893, which would correspond in a measure with the panic of 1893. Happily there is no prospect of any such calamity befalling the American people and yet disaster is sure to come if republican voters do not see to it that their votes are cast when the opportunity comes in November.

While the entire country will join with the president in a good laugh over this exploded sensation, says Walter Wellman in telling the story of the New York Evening Post's fake Roosevelt letter to Michael Donnelly, leader of the Chicago meat strike, there is a serious side to the episode. Printing letters alleged to have been written by President Roosevelt or Judge Parker, even in irony or for the purpose of sarcasm, is not a practice to be commended. It would be all right if the publication could be confined to the original journal, where precaution is taken to explain the true character of the article, but it is too easy for some one to cut off the explanation and reprint the thing as bona fide.

It is only kind to remind the democratic party that the first frost of the season is not far off and they had better take in their good resolutions before those young and tender plants come to grief.

"Marse Henry" Watterson seems to feel hurt because his party has objected to his agreeing with it in vigorous language. The sympathy of all right-minded men should be given to Colonel Watterson.

It was supposed that Hill would appear in the background at the New York state democratic convention, but perhaps the photographer took the picture on the wrong side of the group.

It is a little difficult to discover what kind of machine the democratic party thinks it has, but to hazard a guess one might call it a bolting machine.

Every republican in Paducah and the incorporated towns of the district should register on next Tuesday, October 4th.

Republicans, do not fail to register Tuesday, October 4th, 6 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Republicans, if you would vote, register Tuesday, October 4th.

Register Tuesday, republicans!

WHY?

If Theodore Roosevelt is not considered safe by the commercial and financial interests of the country why have stocks continued to rise during the past thirty days even in the midst of a presidential campaign when suspension and doubt have heretofore been the rule?

Why did Oregon in June roll up such a splendid majority for the Republican candidate?

Why did Vermont on September 6 give her candidates such a rousing majority?

Why did Arkansas on the preceding day show a large Democratic falling off?

Why did Maine on September 12 maintain the great majority of 1900 and give a Republican majority of several thousands in excess of the average Republican September majorities since 1884?

Why is the betting two to one upon Roosevelt and Fairbanks without any takers of the short end?

Why are the Democratic papers without exception pounding the Democratic management of the campaign and calling upon the candidate himself to come to the rescue?

Can there be but one answer to all these indications, and can they point only in one direction as to what will be the result on November 8? The fact of the matter is that the financial and commercial interests of the country, the agricultural interests of the country, the transportation interests of the country, the mining and forest interests of the country, and most of all, the laboring interests of the country, want a continuation of our present administration; they want John Hay re-nominated as secretary of state; they want the Bingley law to be continued without any tinkering whatever, and they want to feel safe against the aggression of foreign competition of any nature or of foreign arms, by placing Theodore Roosevelt again at the head of the nation's affairs for another four years.

Every republican in Paducah and the incorporated towns of the district should register on next Tuesday, October 4th.

ALL THE CHURCHES

Several Additions to the Various Memberships Last Night.

Ministerial Association Held a Meeting This Morning at the Baptist Parsonage.

OTHER MINOR CHURCH NOTES

The Ministerial Association held its regular meeting this morning, and reports were made on the recent revival held here by Rev. Holcomb. The total expense was $134, and every cent of it has been paid. Rev. Holcomb received not quite half.

There were five additions to the First Baptist church yesterday and three to the Broadway Methodist church. Good congregations were at all the churches.

Yesterday and last night marked an important period in the series of meetings being conducted by Dr. Pinkerton at the First Christian church. Large audiences greeted the speaker, especially so last night, the vast auditorium was more than full and many went to the balcony.

Dr. Pinkerton preached at 11 a. m. on "The Business Man in Religion" and at 7:30 p. m. on the subject was "Lectures painting entitled 'Despised and Rejected of Men.' It is impossible in a limited notice like this to do justice to the sermon on this subject. Those who missed it are the losers. A vivid description of the famous painting was given. He told how Christ was represented bound to a slab of marble and how the artist had portrayed the world passing by, 'Rejecting' Christ. A priest and a theologian, a scientist and a society lady, each being representatives of their classes were passing, unconscious of the Christ. From each of these characters impressive lessons were taught. There was also the politician with his audience of enthusiasts. From this Dr. Pinkerton brought home an object lesson. He referred to the shooting of Saturday night. He said the city administration gave heed to a whiskey king in preference to the Heavenly King.

At the close of his sermon two came forward to unite with the church. A large audience is expected tonight at 7:30. One hour and ten minutes covers the time of the entire service. The West Union Baptist Association meets October 12th at Lone Oak, this county, and embraces all the Baptist churches in McCracken and Ballard counties. The annual report of the First Baptist church, Rev. G. W. Perryman, pastor, will show 123 new members added during the year, making a total membership of 721, and that receipts for all character of work amounted to $5,000, $1,200 of this being for missions. The association will be in session three days and there will be a large crowd present. Those who go from Paducah are: Rev. G. W. Perryman, R. L. Ely, J. E. Potter, F. N. Gardner, Dr. Hall, and W. E. Jovington, with probably delegates from the other Baptist churches also.

A Chicago dispatch says relative to an important question: Signed statements from leading bishops in the Episcopal church indicate that at the conference in Boston the question of divorce will be finally settled. All interviews show that a new canon is likely to be adopted absolutely forbidding the re-marriage of divorced persons, under any circumstances whatever. The proposed new law is ready for introduction and its friends are lining up for the great struggle. They say the sentiment for its adoption has grown wonderfully during the last three years, and that its passage is almost certain.

The present canon says: No minister knowingly, after due inquiry, shall solemnize the marriage of any person who has a divorced husband or wife still living, if such husband or wife has been put away for any cause arising after marriage; but this canon shall not be held to apply to the innocent party in a divorce for the cause of adultery or parties once divorced seeking to be united again.

The proposed canon reads: No minister shall solemnize a marriage between any two persons unless, by inquiry, he shall have satisfied himself that neither person has been or is the husband or the wife of an

Theatrical Notes

Miss Emmalyn Prewitt Lackey, who is well and favorably known in this section has joined the "King Dodo" Opera Company as prima donna, playing the part of "Piola," a soldier of fortune. Miss Lackey comes of good old Kentucky stock, having been born in Madisonville. Her father, Dr. Prewitt, was very prominent in the dental profession and was also extremely active in politics, having by his oratorical powers gained the title of "The Silver Voiced Orator." Miss Lackey has been studying abroad for several years. She has only recently returned to this country. Last season she was prima donna with the Lela Glaser Opera Company in "Dolly Varden" and has also been soloist of the Royal Italian Band (founded by Creators).

Mr. F. Lawrence Walker is in the city arranging for the forthcoming engagement of Mr. Charles B. Hanford. Mr. Walker has been associated with this popular star for more than fourteen years, and each successive year has witnessed more elaborate presentations of the standard plays which constitute his repertory. This season, Mr. Hanford's extensive equipment necessitates more extensive preparations than those which suffice for ordinary theatrical engagements.

Mr. Hanford will present "Don Caesar De Bazan" at The Kentucky on Monday evening, October 17. The theater goers of this city will remember Mr. Hanford's splendid production of "The Taming of the Shrew" last season and will look forward to his forthcoming engagement with pleasurable anticipation.

Manager Engle's good shows begin coming in pretty soon now. There are some fine attractions for the latter part of this month and November.

SULTAN OF TURKEY.

Since the Death of His Brother He Fears Assassination.

Constantinople, Sept. 30.—The death of the late Sultan Murad and the unseemly haste with which he was buried may lead to the final downfall of Sultan Abdul Hamid.

The police have discovered several secret political associations the members of which have bound themselves not to rest until they have succeeded in dethroning the present sultan. A number of officers in the army have been arrested because their names were on the list of members of the associations, and in the apartments of one of these was found a large quantity of these unwelcome, and should not be distributed, in which Abdul Hamid was denounced as a murderer and an enemy of the people, who must be made to suffer the same fate as the late Sultan Murad.

The sultan, who has been told of the existence of these conspiracies, is doubling the guards around Yildiz Kiosk and has again sent word to the Prince of Montenegro asking for 300 more mountaineers to guard his person.

WARE EXPLAINS ORDER

Pension Commissioner's Clear Defense of the Age Pension Order.

It is Right in Principle and in Law—Dulness of Parker Constitution Club Well Shown.

To the Editor of the Sun:

Sir—All Democrats are constitutional lawyers and occupy the relation to the Republican party that mosquitoes do to a fisherman.

I have recently seen report No. 1, made by the Parker Constitution club of New York, in which they find that pension order No. 78, known as the age order, is an invasion of the constitution, and they hold the president responsible therefor.

Order No. 78 was an order making the proof of certain ages of old soldiers evidential facts of certain degrees of disability; not conclusive—only evidential.

Seventy years, being the Biblical age of threescore and ten, was fixed as the probable age of total disability, "which so incapacitated them from the performance of manual labor as to render them unable to earn a support." The foregoing are the words of the statute.

The United States statutes make the commissioner of pensions the executive officer to carry out and enforce the pension laws. The laws are brief and need much interpretation, and the position of commissioner is in many respects analogous to that of a judge in that he must interpret the law and weigh the evidence presented and declare therefrom whether the claimant is entitled to a pension or not. Over 100,000 claims are by him rejected annually.

Among other things which the commissioner is called upon to decide is the meaning of the sentence above quoted. For instance, What is "manual labor"? Notice a policeman strolling leisurely along. Is he performing manual labor? Is the night watchman in a hotel or the cashier in a bank or many another whom we might cite engaged in manual labor?

The commissioner must decide what is "manual labor." The statute does not say to brain labor, nor does it define "manual labor." Congress pensions for physical and not mental decay.

Again, what is "a support"? Must an old soldier live on rice or on cornmeal? Is the support contemplated by congress the cheapest that will keep life in him at one meal a day? Must he live in a cellar or in a bunk, like a San Francisco Chinaman. Must he wear rags? Must he wrap himself up in a piece of carpet and hibernate through the winter?

The present attitude of thought in the pension bureau is that the word "support" means clothes good enough to go to church in, and a respectable abode, and such medical attendance as may be necessary, and three good square meals a day, and plenty of plug cut and several other things, and then some more.

Order No. 78 finds that an old soldier who is sixty-two years of age is probably able to earn only one-half of that kind of a support and is entitled to $6 per month as a pension, and at sixty-five he is two-thirds disabled and entitled to $8.

This rule is within the strict line of statutory authority, human experience and executive precedent. No Democratic president or commissioner will ever abrogate order No. 78, because it is for all time, yet a Democratic president or commissioner would have that power, and General Black, who had been pension commissioner, knowing of this power, thought it wise to suggest that congress put the question beyond the reach of his party by making an act done in pursuance of congressional authority the motive of a specific act.

There being nothing wrong in principle with order No. 78, let us now examine the particular charge of unconstitutionality which the Parker Constitution club sets forth.

The club finds President Roosevelt responsible for the order and finds that it contravenes section 9 of article 1, which reads as follows: "No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law."

History and the public records concerning order No. 78 show that when it was made congress was in session; that the order was made March 15, 1904, but was not to go into force until April 13, 1904; that it was immediately reported to congress, with a request that $1,500,000 be appropriated to carry the order into effect. The sum estimated was embodied in the pending deficiency bill and came up for quick discussion. As order No. 78 had been made under and by virtue of authority granted by congress there was then one of three courses to be taken by congress—first, it could deny that the authority was granted, deny that the order was legal and refuse to pass the appropriation; secondly, it could repeal the law and abrogate the order; thirdly, it could recognize the order as legal and valid and vote an appropriation to carry it out.

Congress, after hearing what everybody had to say, took the third course and voted the $1,500,000 to carry it out. Congress having approved the order and voted the money, the pensions began to issue under the order and to be paid.

How did the commissioner get the money to pay those pensions? How did he get it out of the treasury? Did Mr. Roosevelt go to Mr. Shaw and treat him as Caesar did Metellus and take the money away from him? No. Did the commissioner open the treasury with a crowbar and abstract the money? No. Well, how was it? Let us ask Mr. Shaw. He will say that not a dollar has gone out of the treasury without an appropriation bill passed by each branch of congress and signed by the presiding officer of each body.

When order No. 78 was issued Democratic newspapers offered four remedies—the impeachment of the commissioner, the dismissal of the commissioner, a mandamus to compel the commissioner to do his duty as they understood it, and fourth, an injunction to restrain action on order No. 78.

The passage of the appropriation bill recognizing the legality of the order and voting the money to carry it out ended the consideration of the remedies proposed.

This brings us around to the proposition stated by the Parker Constitution club in report No. 1. It reads: "We find that President Roosevelt deliberately disregarded article 1, section 9, of the constitution, providing, 'No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law.'"

I submit the proposition to any blacksmith in the United States, with perfect confidence that he will see where that eminent body of lawyers mistook the meaning of that comprehensive document. E. F. WARE, Bureau of Pensions, Washington, Sept. 19.

A RESOURCEFUL LEADER.

Country to be Congratulated on the President's Letter.

The New Haven Register, usually Democratic, has this to say of President Roosevelt's letter of acceptance: One way to estimate the fighting strength of an army, which is what a political party is, is to study its leader. A bold and resourceful leader can perform wonders with his men, whether they represent or not the normal fighting condition in numbers and organization. Theodore Roosevelt is a bold and resourceful leader, and he never appeared more so since he entered public life than in this letter of acceptance. For his political enemies to deny the fact or to withhold full realization of its value as a campaign document will be to weaken their own lines of offense and defense. Though not a pupil of Senator Platt in the Sunday school where Governor Odell learned his political p's and q's, and though but a reluctant supporter of James G. Blaine, Mr. Roosevelt has outplayed all of them as a practical politician. He has learned, if he ever doubted it, that to be a leader one must be self-confident before he is sure of his soldiers. In this respect there is no letter of acceptance to compare with his. He steps to the firing line and with a popular bluntness of speech passes in review before him all of the acts of his administration which have been criticized and salutes each one as sound in conception, wise in execution and beneficial in achievement. His is the attitude of the famous old beau who advised younger swains to "never explain nor apologize." It is the attitude, moreover, of an astute politician who understands human nature, especially in its weaknesses, and knows how to appeal to it. It is the attitude of the politician militant who challenges his enemies to combat, and it will for that reason inspire his party to larger endeavor and set for the spellbinders a livelier pace than they have themselves known how to take.

From our point of view the country is to be congratulated upon the receipt of this letter, which, while sent to Speaker Cannon, is addressed to it. It gives assurance of the debate which must follow. Though the Democrats are unfortunate in the errors which they have made during recent years, which Mr. Roosevelt takes full and clever advantage of, there is still a wide difference in their attitude toward policies of government to be hereafter enforced. Mr. Roosevelt declares that as he has done he will continue to do. It is now the duty of Mr. Parker, speaking for his supporters, to state as clearly and boldly as Mr. Roosevelt has done what he proposes to do if given the opportunity. In no other way can the vote of the electorate be cast intelligently. As the Hartford Courant aptly puts it: "No man who votes for the next president of the United States can truly say that he is prepared for that responsible duty until he has read this letter. This is not to say that after reading the letter he will necessarily vote for Theodore Roosevelt. He may not. But, at any rate, if he does so vote against Theodore Roosevelt after the perusal of this letter he will do so with his eyes open, and that is a state of mind on the part of the millions of voters of this country that is eminently to be desired."

The Old Story.

[From the Hartford Courant.] This theory that Theodore Roosevelt is a bad and dangerous man is merely a new application of the usual Democratic method. The established Democratic formula for forty years has been to "view with alarm." Sometimes it is this thing that is viewed, and sometimes it is that, but the alarm is constant. This year it is Roosevelt who is so viewed. Lincoln was so viewed in his immortal day. The real question, however, as to how the Democratic party and its candidate of unexpressed opinions would manage the affairs of the United States remains unchanged.

"Gentlemen," rose Jarrat's voice, "the hogpen is just below. Will you come?"

"Dreaming" asked Cary.

oft where the lookout is more agreeable and join me in a game of loo?"

On a morning when land had long been promised and was eagerly looked for the young Frenchman, M. Armand mounted to the deck. His face was weathered, and the salt breath of the spume fell damp on his hair. The Virginian came and stood beside him, and both looked down upon the wrecked legion of redemptioners crowding the lower deck, gazing dumbly up like cattle.

"A brave sight," submitted Cary, "to show the riches of the colonies."

His tone was not without bitterness, as the Frenchman perceived. "You would not have it so?"

"I? No. We have no need of some of the offscouring you see there. It will breed us the curse of crime. But what care the factors? 'Tis profit to them. And what cares the king? It means more tobacco, and tobacco stuffs his coffers."

"Yet some of these may be lifted by opportunity."

"Aye," answered Cary. "Bad as they are. Wooden hogs, fair sick for the lash, lumps from Cork or lack Latin suits shipped for schoolmasters. Their sons may be good citizens. New lands, new conditions. If this land be not saddled with another's ills, here these shall at least have hope. By their faces they leave not much to love behind them."

Before either spoke again a cry came up from where a crowd of sloven redemptioners were gathered—a cry and a hoarse word in one. Down below, at one side, a woman leaned, hugging a shawl wrapped bundle to her breast.

She was a drab, but with a certain sullen beauty that is bred of Latin blood. Armand had seen her face more than once transfigured by that wondrous glory of mother love. He had that very day heard her crooning softly as she walked, noted the strange furtiveness with which she avoided the too curious gaze of her fellows, wondered what subtle grace nature had lent for mother eyes to those infant features.

Now one of the crew stood over her, plucking at the shawl. She was weeping passionately, loudly, without pretense of concealment.

"What a devil's that?" bawled the mate's voice from a rope ladder.

"The brat's dead," said the sailor. "Blow me tight, I've been watching her for two days. The lallop's bee, singing to it to pull the wool over our eyes."

"Dead, is it? Pitch it overboard, then." He kicked down a greasy rag of canvas.

As the man he commanded approached the woman she fell on her knees, shrinking in close against the bulwarks and speaking rapidly in some foreign tongue.

"What's that lollolly?" asked the mate.

"She says," translated one of the pitiful group around her, "that the land is so near and the water is cold. She wants to bury it in the ground."

"Split me," oathed the mate, "is that all? Over with it, Jerry!"

Again she spoke, volubly and with many groveling sobs.

"She says," said the redemptioner, "that if it could only be blessed. There is no priest aboard."

The mate with his hands on the rail, laughed at this. "Do what I say, you down there!" he cried. "Will ye stand making mouths all day? Tie it in that canvas."

The man he had bidden approached the woman to take the cold little body from her, but she turned suddenly a fury and, holding it to her breast with one arm, fought him off, screaming.

He jumped back, with his hand clapped to his armpit. "The Jezebel's bit me!" he yelled.

There was a great laugh from the sailors, and the mate cursed luridly from above. "Are ye mollicoddles, then?" he shouted. As they hesitated he scrambled down hand over hand, damning them for landlubbers and clearly minded to do it himself.

The Frenchman's fingers, as he stood beside the Virginian, gripped the rail "Swine!" he said under his breath. Then he leaned over and called clearly "Keep your hand from that woman!"

The mate looked up, astonished, at the group, for the other passengers had gathered to witness what was going on.

"What's that?" he asked.

Armand repeated his words.

The mate's face turned a spongy purple, and he laughed in a way that was not good to hear. For answer he reached out a hand to the shawl and literally tore it away from the poor clay it covered.

At the instant he did so Armand vaulted the rail where he stood, caught a rope, swung to a stanchion and landed as lightly as a cat at the side of the burly ruffian. The act was so clean, so graceful and so quick that none of the passengers could have told exactly how it was done.

The mate turned and, seeing him at his elbow, struck with all his strength at the other's head.

The stroke was one to stun, but it never reached home. The young foreigner bent one side, not moving his feet, with a motion that would have spoken volumes to an athlete, and the mate's fist banged against the bulwark. While he staggered from this, Armand, seizing a rope's end as he dived, cut him across the face with such a slash that the blood ran from the gash.

Now ensued a strange combat. The mate, heavy and cumbersome, tried to reach the other with sledge hammer blows. The Frenchman, slight, wary, circling, retreating, slipped hither and thither. Three times in as many seconds that brilliant "swish" sang, and a red mark sprang out on the brutal face.

At each swing of the fist a sort of groan went up from the huddled redemptioners, and at each cut they sucked in their breath with delight. It was a new, strange entertainment for them—to have a brain sick passenger descend from his clean deck to champion the cause of a scum.

The Virginian, looking down, was quivering visibly. As the passenger evaded a blow that would have crushed his ribs he could not forbear a shout: "Well done, by the Lord! But 'ware the clinch! 'Ware the clinch, mon sieur!"

For the mate, though maddened out of himself, had shown a sudden gleam of purpose. He was forcing the secretary back into a corner between bulwark and stanchion, not striking, but his burly arms now stretched out wide. Even as Cary shouted the arms gripped Armand like a vise, and the stinging rope's end, useless now, fell to the deck.

Over the upper rail the passengers leaned, watching.

"A shame!" cried one. "That bloody brute will kill him out of hand!"

"'Tis the clerk! Pshaw!" said the quartermaster. "He sides with the scum. Let the rabble cure for him!"

The woman who had been the unwitting cause of this struggle crouched back of the first sullenly intent rows, waiting, hugging her bundle. The others watched, guessing well what the issue would be, most of them accepting it as they had accepted the unspokenable fact, the enmities and revilings of the crew, with that stolid acceptance which, multiplied by centuries of heredit, had brought them at last to this same condition.

The Virginian leaned down with vibrant hopelessness. He looked to see the secretary, vied and cracked in those arms, drop limp and senseless. As he looked he saw Armand's face very white, turn up to him.

SOME CURIOUS NAMES THAT ARE FOUND IN CITY DIRECTORIES

What's in a name?

A perusal of the new Detroit City Directory, says the Detroit Tribune, which is usually credited with being exceedingly dry and verbose volume, reveals the fact that there are some very funny things in names, and that the cognomens of some Detroiters are strange and curious and would perhaps appeal to the risibilities of a foreigner quite as much as some of the names of the old land that prove stumbling blocks over which American tongues stammer and fall.

All the emotions, seasons, birds of the air and fish of the sea almost, have been pressed into service in naming Detroiters, while several have even been drawn upon the bowels of the earth. While there are several Hells recorded, it is significant that no one is entitled to designate himself by the term of Heaven.

There are Summers and Winters, Springs and Fahls. In the same class might be mentioned Shine, Shivers and plenty of Frosts. Somewhat indicative of the rainy seasons are the names Slush, Mudlaff, Snow and Ditch.

In tableware, there is one man named Fork, while a lady is known by the name of Knife. Spoons abound.

ARTICLES OF WARDROBE.
A variegated wardrobe is represented, there being Shirts, Coates, Hatts, Collars, Stocking, Sole, Cloake and even one Shochotton.

As a reminder of chastisement are the names of Whalen, Thrasher and Pinches. No Kicks have been registered. Names which make one think of his youth are Bumps, Cuffs and Fahls. A Vain search was made for the name Lacking, although Lacking approaches very nearly to it.

Romantic names such as Dear, Darling and Kiss are frequently to be found, while there is quite a bunch of Kidds. There are also a sufficiency of Sweets, while one gentleman bears the name of Lovely. There is one lady in Detroit who rejoices in the possession of the charming name of Pretty.

Something on the friendly order are the names Comrade, Fellows and Chapes. Besides the Birds and Fowles might be mentioned incidentally the names of Sparrow, Stork, Duck and Swan, while a more exhaustive search would reveal many others.

One of the most remarkable names to be found in this year's directory is that of a man whose surname is Kill. The police are not taking any notice of him, being too busy with the holdup men. The medical fraternity should be glad to know that we always have with us persons bearing the name of Fitts and Paine.

SOUNDS OF WAR.

Names of warlike sound like Spears, Cannon, Clubbs, Darts and Guns appear in profusion. Of one man it is stated in the big book that he diedrich. A name to interest the small boy is that of Grubb, while one that ought to appeal to a thug is that of Robb. One individual whom the ladies are asked not to Shunn is a man of that name living in Detroit.

Mr. Tapp and Mr. Sink must be handy fellows about the kitchen, while Mr. Hack doubtless moves along at a lively rate. Mr. Fish and Mr. Sucker also should come in for a share of attention at this season.

Then there is a man name Holler. There are also a few Howells and plenty of Bellers. Mr. Cornett and Mr. Horn appear among the old names. Those interested in physiology will be glad to know that there are people named Head, Armes, Leggs and Feet.

A gentleman it might be well to know in a moment of temporary excitement such as ensues when one strikes one's thumb with a hammer is Mr. Damn. One individual who may not believe in cursing the whole firm bears the name of Damico. A gentleman accredited with being very subtle is Mr. Sly. Mr. Short also claims some attention.

Mr. Sours and Mr. Sweet.
Mr. Strong and Mr. Weak.
Mr. Moule and Mr. Soule.
Mr. Wood and Mr. Cole.
Mr. Hook and Mr. Cook.
Mr. Brook and Mr. Swook.
Mr. Bull and Mr. Bear.
Mr. Buck and Mr. Hare.
Mr. Hart and Mr. Hinde.
In the directory you will find.

A provision of the contract will be that the work must be completed inside of ninety days.

Plans and specifications for the building were drawn by W. L. Brainerd, of Paducah. Mr. Brainerd drew the plans for the Kentucky theater here and the English theater in Henderson, and has an enviable reputation as a designer of theater buildings.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

PADUCAH, KY., March 5, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles, and it has cured me sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

MRS. JOHN SMEDLEY, 806 S. Third St.

This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner's Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

COL. COLSON'S LAST HOUR.

Barbourville, Ky., Oct. 3.—The Mountain Advocate publishes in connection with the death of Col. David G. Colson the following account of the manner in which the former congressman was affected by his fatal illness:

"On the morning before his death he became so deranged from the nervous collapse that he left his home, harnessed his $500 horse and hitched it to his carriage and started out on a wild, reckless drive. While on this drive he fired several shots into his horse, killing it in the harness. He was taken in charge and returned to his home, where he received every attention that medical science could give, but he passed away at 8 o'clock in the evening without gaining consciousness."

FIRE AT MIDDLESBORO.

Middlesboro, Ky., Oct. 3.—Fire broke out in a new frame building at Middlesboro and for a time it seemed that the town was doomed, the flames licked up the building so quickly. PUTTING THE LID ON.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 3.—It was Saturday afternoon order that beginning at midnight every form of industry must observe the Sunday closing law. The board of police commissioners adopted resolutions notifying the police and detectives that they would be discharged if any person was allowed to violate the law. The chief of police notified the newspapers that their employees will be arrested at midnight.

The daily papers ran as usual. Livestock, stables, milk wagons, ice wagons, groceries, barbershops, saloons, and all kinds of markets were notified to close under penalty of arrest.

The Law and Order league demanded the enforcement of the law and appealed to the grand jury, who voted indictments against Mayor Combs, Chief of Police Reagan and the Police Commissioners. The indictments are held up pending compliance with the demands of the grand jury. Injunctions were Saturday night taken out to prevent the arrest of newspaper men and livery men and others.

REV. IRL R. HICKS' FORECASTS FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

Word and Works, Rev. Irl Hicks' publication, contains the following weather forecast for October:

The storm period in progress at the close of September will be felt the first two days of this month in the eastern parts of the country while the higher barometer and change to fair and colder weather will have advanced eastward beyond the central valley of the Mississippi.

On and touching the 4th and 5th look for return of higher temperature, falling barometer and more falling weather. All these October disturbances will wind up with rising barometer, change of winds to northwesterly, and much cooler weather.

The first regular storm period proper for October is central on the 11th, and extends from the 8th to the 12th. The moon being in perigee on the 7th and on the celestial equator and new on the 8th, expect very prompt developments, in the form of falling barometer, change to quite warm, and followed by rain, wind and even thunder storms as early in the period as the 8th and 9th. Later in the period these storms will spread to the east, and along with the rising barometer behind the storms, an early touch of boreal weather will come out of the northwest, attended by high, autumnal gales over the lake regions. It is possible also that delayed equinoctial storms may reach the southern coasts at this period. Within forty-eight hours of noon on the 8th, seismic disturbances in many parts of the earth need not cause surprise.

The next storm period will be central on the 16th, 17th and 18th. This is a Vulcan reactionary period and it will bring on disturbed weather condition that will run, most probably, into the regular storm period following. The Mercury brace shows that a Mercury equinoctial disturbance is central on the 28th, reaching from the 18th to the close of October. This fact will tend to a prolonged spell of unsettled, disturbed weather.

During the regular Vulcan period, central on the 22nd, the already unsettled elements will return to very decided storm conditions. From about 21st to the 24th general and active autumnal storms may be expected. A very depressed barometer will advance from the west, attended by storms, first of rain and probable thunder, followed by early spurts of snow and sleet in early extremes. Heavy northwesterly gales will visit the great lakes and the north Atlantic coasts at this time, and a general and decided change to colder will spread over most parts of the country with the anti-storm area that follows this period. The culminating crisis of this period will fall on and touching Monday the 24th. On and about this date will also be another period when earthquake shivers will be reported from different quarters of the globe. Look for frost well to the southward, with some freezing to the north at the end of and for some days following this period.

The last period of disturbance in October, blending with Mercury equinox is central on the 27th and 28th. At this time look for a reaction to warmer, with falling barometer and return of rain and thick cloudiness and midst amounting to sleet in many sections northward.

The month will go out with anti-storm areas spreading eastward from the west-northwest causing general change to much cooler.

ABOUT OVER

NO MORE BASEBALL LIKELY FOR THIS YEAR.

Saturday and Sunday the Clinton, Ky., team defeated the Paducah picked team of professionals at Wallace park.

Saturday's game was a shut-out, the Clinton boys winning by a score of 5 to 0. Yesterday the score stood 3 to 1 at the close of the game in favor of Clinton. Saturday Lloyd and Land, for Paducah; Alexander and Walters for Clinton, were the batteries while yesterday Ashley and Walters for Clinton; Gerard and Land, for Paducah, were the batteries.

This makes two out of three games taken by the visitors, the first game being a tie, score 1 to 1. This probably ends the baseball season for Paducah, the weather being too cold to play any more.

Supervisor of the county roads Bert Johnson will present a report showing that the county has this year spent on the roads $17,940.31.

Of that sum $7,360.78 was spent for bridges on the old roads, $598.62 in repairing the old gravel roads and $5,115.12 in working the old dirt roads. This makes a total of $13,775.52 for the old road account, while $920.03 was spent on bridges for the new roads opened, and $1,830.06 spent on the new dirt roads, making for this account $2,751.09. SPECIAL TRAIN

WILL BE PLACED AT DISPOSAL OF PADUCAH PARTY.

Miss Annie May Yeiser today received from the naval department at Washington, official notice of her appointment as sponsor for the christening of the gunboat Paducah at Morris Heights, New York. It will be launched at 11 a. m., October 11th.

Miss Yeiser is notified also that a special train for her and party, will leave New York at 10:35 a. m. It is not known what this means, but is supposed to be permission to have with her a party from Paducah.

Mayor Yeiser will probably accompany his daughter to New York, and Mr. Henry Yeiser and wife, of Cincinnati, will also go. Others may go if it is ascertained that there are no objections at Morris Heights.

It is expected that quite a crowd of Kentuckians and former Paducahans will witness the christening. There are fully a dozen from Paducah now living in New York.

WILL SUE

FOR STOPPING SUNDAY DELIVERY OF MILK AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 3.—Ex-Alderman C. B. Lowery today announced his intention of filing a $10,000 damage suit against those responsible for stopping the delivery of milk yesterday. Lowery has two sick children who subsist mainly on milk and his wagon failed to arrive. He called at a milk depot and was unable to purchase milk, as the managers of the depot had been arrested for violation of the law.

Lowery says he will invite all families whose sick children suffered to join him in this suit and he will pay the attorney's fees.

NOT SCHUDMORE

MAN SUPPOSED TO BE MURDERED IS ALIVE.

St. Louis, October 3.—G. O. Schudmore, former cashier of the Savings bank at Sebree, Ky., thought to have been the man found dead in Creve Coeur lake last Friday, disproved that theory of the police by appearing at the home of relatives here last night. Schudmore's two brothers came here from Flora, Ill., and identified the body of the dead man as his body. His appearance leaves the police without a clue as to the identity of the dead man.

THE CAPITOL

MAJORITY OF LEGISLATORS SAID TO BE FOR NEW SITE.

Louisville, Ky., October 3.—Letters were mailed by the Commercial Club to members of the Legislature, asking for a response on the question of a new site for the State Capitol. The club some time ago mailed letters asking that each member of the general assembly express himself for or against the proposed extraordinary session, which will be necessary to make a law providing for the new site. R. A. McDowell, president of the club, says that a majority of the members of the legislature have expressed themselves favorably, but a check has not been taken to ascertain if the majority be of the different houses or only of the assembly as a whole.

Of the 138 original members, eight are dead or disqualified. Sixty-six answers have been received favoring a new site, and the supplemental letters are designed to establish a clear majority in each house.
